(E) Medical Attention Telephone Medical Advice, Evaluation and Referral Appointment

When medical advice is needed, the Insured Person may telephone the nearest IPA's alarm center for medical advice and evaluation from the attending physician. However, it shall be stressed that telephone conversation cannot establish a diagnosis and shall be considered as an advice only. If medically necessary, the Insured Person shall be referred to another physician or to a medical specialist for personal assessment and IPA will assist the Insured Person in making the medical appointment. All physician's fees and related charges shall be borne entirely and directly by the Insured Person without any reimbursement from IPA.

24 Hours Emergency Assistance Hotline : 852-2861-9296 (Collect Call)

(F) Medical Evacuation

Should the Insured Person suffer from Bodily Injury such that IPA's medical team and the attending physician recommend hospitalization in a or another medical facility where the Insured Person can be suitably treated from a medical viewpoint, IPA will arrange and pay for the transfer of the Insured Person into one of the nearest hospital and, if necessary, on medical grounds :

The transfer of the Insured Person with necessary medical supervision by any means (including but not limited to air ambulance, scheduled commercial flight, and road ambulance) to a hospital more appropriately equipped for the particular Bodily Injury or Illness. or

The direct repatriation, including road ambulance transfers to and from the airports, of the Insured Person with necessary medical supervision by scheduled airline to an appropriate hospital or other health care facility near his permanent residence, if his medical condition permits such repatriation. The medical team and attending physician will determine the necessary arrangements according to the circumstances.

(G) Repatriation After Treatment

Following the Medical Evacuation if continuous medical treatment is deemed necessary, IPA will arrange and pay for the repatriation of the Insured Person to the hospital of his Country of Residence by scheduled airline flight (on economy class) or any other appropriate means of transportation, including any supplementary cost of transportation to and from the airport, if his original ticket is not valid for the purpose, provided that the Insured Person shall surrender any unused portion of his ticket to IPA. Any decision on the repatriation of the Insured Person shall be made jointly and exclusively by both the attending physician and IPA's Alarm Center under constant medical supervision.

(H) Repatriation of Mortal Remains/Ashes

Upon the death of a Insured Person, IPA will make all the necessary arrangements (including any steps or arrangements necessary to meet local formalities) and pay up for:

- (i) the repatriation of the Insured Person's body or ashes to the Insured Person's place of burial in the Insured Person's place of Permanent Residence; or
- (ii) at the request of the Insured Person's heirs or representative, the local burial of the Insured Person, provided that IPA's financial responsibility for such local burial shall be limited to the equivalent of the cost of repatriation of mortal remains as provided in this benefit.

(L) Return of Unattended Dependent Child(ren) to Country of Residence

If any of the Insured Person's travelling dependent child(ren) under 16 years of age is left unattended by reason of the Insured Person's Bodily Injury resulting in hospital confinement outside his Country of Residence, IPA will organize and pay for the cost of a scheduled airline ticket (on economy fare basis), for such child(ren) to return to his home in the Insured Person's Country of Residence, including any supplementary cost of transportation to and from the airport, if the original ticket is not valid for the return, provided that the Insured Person shall surrender any unused portion of the return ticket to IPA.

(M) Deposit Guarantee of Hospital Admission

In case of hospital admission duly approved by both the attending physician and IPA's Alarm Centre doctor and the Insured Person is without means of payment of the required hospital admission deposit, IPA will on behalf of the Insured Person guarantee or provide such payment up to HK$65,000.-. IPA will require valid credit authorization prior to advancement of funds for such admission, as appropriate. The costs of this benefit should be reimbursed by the Insured Person to IPA within one month without any interest.

(N) General Obligation of IPA under International Assistance Service

In the event of a Bodily Injury resulting in hospitalization of the Insured Person, the Insured Person or his representative, where possible, shall contact any office of IPA within 3 days of days of the occurrence of such Emergency or any complication directly relating to such Emergency. In the absence of such notice, IPA will not be held responsible.

IPA's medical team or other representative shall have free access to the Insured Person in order to assess the Insured Person's condition. Without reasonable justification for denial of such an access, the Insured Person will not be eligible for further medical assistance.

(O) Subrogation under International Assistance Service

- i) It is noted and agreed that the primary purpose of these assistance benefits is the provision of services to Beneficiaries when involved in a medical emergency.
If the services provided by IPA are covered in whole or in part by an insurance policy or other health plans, IPA shall only be responsible for those costs which cannot be recovered by the Insured Person under the said insurance policy or health plans.
- ii) Any portion of an Insured Person's travel ticket which is unused following the provision of services is to be surrendered to IPA.
- iii) IPA may at any time and at their own expense take proceedings in the name of the Insured Person to obtain compensation or secure an indemnity from any third party in respect of any loss or injury giving rise to the provision of services under this assistance program.

(P) Limitation & Exclusion under International Assistance Service

1. Services rendered without the authorization and/or intervention of IPA.
2. Services made by any party other than IPA for which no charge is usually made.
3. Medical treatment administered by relatives whether qualified or not.
4. Costs which would have been payable if the event giving rise to the intervention of IPA had not occurred.
5. Any expense more specifically covered under any insurance policy.
6. Cases of minor illness or injury which in the opinion of the IPA Physician can be adequately treated locally and which do not prevent the Insured Person from continuing their travels or work.
7. Expenses incurred where the Insured Person in the opinion of the IPA Physician is physically able to return to his/her Principal Country of Residence sitting as a normal passenger and without medical escort, unless deemed necessary by the IPA Physician.
8. Situation in which the Insured Person was under medical treatment at the time of commencing his/her journey and the costs concerned were relevant to that treatment, or if the said journey was undertaken against doctor's orders or advice.
